

21 DETECTIVE DOUGLAS: Why --

22 A. But she would get let -- you see, that's 23 the other thing I don't understand. She would get
24 letters when he was out of town, and I know --

1 Q. Only one time.

2 A. But he was out of town. So who put them
3 in the mailbox? So he obviously --

4 Q. Well --

5 A. -- had somebody working with him --

6 Q. The letter was received on a Monday when
7 he went out -- on Sunday.

8 (Phone buzzes.)

9 A. It came in the middle, though. Like I
10 was with him when he got the call about it. I don't 11 know.

12 DETECTIVE DOUGLAS: Okay.

13 Q. I got the police reports, when the
14 reports were made. So that was the only time -- once
15 a letter came when he was supposed to be out of town,
16 and it was on a Monday. So could be a coincidence.

The letter arrived on Monday, April 6th, 2009 while Christopher Coleman and Tara Lintz were in Hawaii together. Chris had been out of town since March 30th and was expected back April 8th, 2009. He could not have put the letter in the box. Tara's itinerary shows the dates the were gone.
